The Journey

The Kumrat Valley Tour takes you to one of Pakistan's most pristine and undiscovered alpine valleys — a 4-day journey into Dir Upper, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, where dense conifer forests, glacial rivers, alpine meadows and traditional wooden villages create a landscape of extraordinary natural beauty that few international visitors have ever seen. Kumrat Valley sits at elevations between 2,100m and 4,500m in the upper reaches of Dir Upper district. The valley is characterised by one of the densest conifer forests in Pakistan — towering Deodar cedar, fir and pine trees creating a green canopy over crystal-clear streams. The air is clean, cool and scented with pine resin even in
