The Journey

The Nagma Valley Tour takes you to one of Pakistan's most beautiful and least-visited alpine valleys — a hidden paradise of pine forests, glacial rivers, wildflower meadows and traditional Chitrali stone villages tucked deep in the Hindu Kush mountains of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. The Valley Nagma Valley sits between 2,800m and 4,200m in upper Chitral District. It is characterised by extraordinarily dense pine and juniper forests (rare in this part of Pakistan), crystal-clear glacier-fed streams and open alpine meadows carpeted with wildflowers from June through August — a world away from the crowds of more famous destinations. Culture & People The Chitrali people of Nagma Valley are among the

Good to Know

Booking & Payment

- A deposit of $50 per person confirms your seat. The balance is due 30 days before departure.
- Book through our website, WhatsApp, or an authorized agent — every booking is confirmed in writing.
- Prices are held once your deposit is received and may otherwise change with season and availability.

Cancellation Policy

- Cancel 30+ days before departure: full refund minus the deposit.
- Cancel 14–29 days before: 50% refund of the total paid.
- Cancel under 14 days before: no refund, as rooms and transport are already booked.

Permits & Documentation

- Foreign guests need a standard Pakistan tourist visa — no restricted-zone permit is required for Nagma Valley. We provide a Letter of Invitation on request.
- A small local community and grazing-ground fee applies and is included in your package.
- Carry your passport and ID; valid travel and mountain medical insurance is recommended.

Health & Fitness

- Moderate. You camp at alpine meadows up to 3,800m and walk 4–5 hours a day on shepherd trails — a good level of general fitness is needed.
- No technical climbing skills are required. Nights are cold even in summer; we provide tents and camp gear.
- Tell us in advance about any heart condition or history of altitude sickness so we can pace the climb.
