The Journey

The Skardu Autumn Tour is a 6-day celebration of Baltistan at its most colourful — when the Shigar and Hushe valleys turn brilliant gold, amber and crimson, and the first snows of autumn dust the Karakoram peaks above. October and early November bring a transformation to the landscape that rivals the famous cherry blossom season in beauty. Highlights

Shigar Valley: The ancient apricot orchards and poplar-lined water channels of Shigar Valley are at their most spectacular in autumn — gold and orange against the grey granite walls of the Karakoram.

Kharpocho Fort at sunset: The 16th-century fortress above Skardu takes on a particularly dramatic quality in the low autumn light, with the entire
